

Day 1

Give everyone a hug today! If you're not much for hugging, how about a high five or a fist bump? Then, all your family and friends will know you are glad they are with you today.

Day 2

Holiday lights sure do bring a lot of joy as we walk or drive around town. How about we make cards to drop off at houses with great holiday lights displays to thank them for taking time to bring cheer to everyone?

Day 3

The postal service has been very busy delivering cards and gifts to people, let's make them a special card and treat as a "thank you" for all their hard work helping to make Christmas special for so many.

Day 4

Wow, you sure do have a lot of new gifts. Wouldn't it be great to collect a few of your gently used old toys to give away to kids who don't have as much as you do? I'm sure we can find a nearby Goodwill or other charity by looking online.

Day 5

Wouldn't it be great to make "thank you" cards to give to some of the people who gave you gifts? We could use markers and paper, and whatever else we already have around the house.

Day 6

Brrr... it's cold outside! Let's put together some hot chocolate treats to give to neighbors to warm them up. We don't need much -- just hot chocolate packets, marshmallows, and baggies.

Day 7

You look so spiffy in your new clothes from Christmas. Any chance you've got some clothes in your closet that don't fit anymore or you don't wear? I bet we could donate those to children in need.

Day 8

You have the best smile! I got you a new toothbrush to polish those pearly whites so you can smile at everyone you meet and hopefully they will smile back at you.

Day 9

Let's bake some cookies to take to the fire station near your house. I bet they would love to have some homemade cookies to know we are grateful for all they do to help people.

Day 10

Playing with sidewalk chalk is a lot of fun. What if we used it to write a friendly message like "Good Morning" or "Have a Great Day" on our neighbor's driveway?

Day 11

It's sure is cold outside and I bet the birds wouldn't mind a special treat. How about we make a bird feeder by spreading some peanut butter on an old paper towel tube and roll it in bird seed?

Day 12

It's our last day together for this year. Let's learn a funny joke so we can make others laugh after all laughter is good for the soul!
